Chalk Talk with CLE Teaching

Goal 1: Design, record, and launch a podcast that takes up pressing educational topics with current PK-University educators

- Episode ideas come from educators
- Guests record in CSU studio
- Publish podcasts as thematic seasons

Goal 2: Provide support for educators to pilot a podcast in their educational setting

- Connect 1-1 with podcast guests and educators to help launch a podcast
- Share “to-go” podcast equipment
- Connections to CSU’s new Inquiry Core Curriculum

Goal 3: Peer to peer professional learning

- Sharing educator knowledge and expertise via the podcast
- Peer to peer learning with other podcast guests

What does partner production look like?

- Pre-production: Call for Proposal “Pitches” and Targeted Recruitment
- Pre-production: Group pitches by topic, start building podcast landing page/website
- Pre-production: Schedule recording times in studio, decide format, prep interview questions, prepare scripts
- Production: Recording at Cleveland State
- Post-production: Editing, Transcripts, Show Notes
- Publish

Resource Sandbox

1. Go to https://referatory.cleteaching.org/ or scan the QR Code on this slide

2. Search the Resource Referatory for your favorite teaching tool, materials, or application.

3. Raise your hand to tell us what it is and one thing you like to use it for in your course (or plan to use it for this year)

4. If it's not in our referatory, submit it as a new resource!
